TILLY

GRASSFED
AMERICANA fest

You 'herd' right. A challenge!

Please help the humans create a local history museum in their historic downtown Woodland.

If all NSGW members contribute just $1 to help sponsor TILLYfest, Parlor 30 would almost reach 50% of their goal!

Now... my expertise is producing milk... but may I suggest that each parlor collect a buck from each of its members, then send one check to Parlor 30 - PO Box 2334, Woodland, 95776.

Thank you very moo-cho!

Presented by Woodland Parlor 30 NSGW. You're invited, so save the date!

HERITAGE PLAZA • HISTORIC DOWNTOWN WOODLAND

BLUE NOTE BREWING • THE BURGER SALOON • MORGAN'S ON MAIN • MOJO'S LOUNGE

TILLYfest, GRASSFED AMERICANA, will celebrate the life and times of Yolo County's Holstein Queen and internationally renowned milk producer – Champion Tilly Alcartra, 1908-1924. In her day, her reputation was unsurpassed, setting world records from 1914-1920.

The FREE festival (no plaza entry fee) will feature bluegrass music and other forms of American roots music at various locations... along with historical exhibits, food, beverages, vendors, farmers market, games and other activities for the whole family.

The fundraiser will help establish a downtown history museum. A breakfast presentation by author Lynne Gough (Asa and the Holstein Queen) is planned for Saturday morning, November 4, at Blue Note Brewing to kick off the day. Questions? Contact Dino Gay at dinogay@sbcglobal.net or (530) 383-0772.

THANK YOU!
